Election of FSA Benefit Options and Amount(s)

(Choose 1 or 2; choose 1A or 1B if selecting 1)

◯ 1. YES, I would like to participate in the following Health FSA offered by my employer and administered by HealthEquity. I pledge a total of $_____ for the coming Plan Year (or remainder of the Plan Year, if election is due to a Qualifying Event).

- ◯ 1A. General Purpose Health Care Expense Account [reimburses all eligible medical, dental and vision expenses permitted under the tax code for the employee, spouse, and eligible dependents; makes employee and covered dependents ineligible to make Health Saving Account (HSA) contributions]
  - ◯ I want to waive the ability to reimburse expenses for the following dependents, so they may contribute to an HSA: _____
- ◯ 1B. Limited Purpose Health Care Expense Account [for employees enrolled in high deductible health plan coverage and making contributions to a HSA; reimburses dental and vision expenses only]

◯ 2. NO, I am not interested in participating in the Health FSA for the coming Plan Year (or remainder of the Plan Year, if election is due to a Qualifying Event).

Election of Dependent Care FSA Benefit Options and Amount(s)

(Choose 1 or 2)

◯ 1. YES, I would like to participate in the Dependent Care FSA offered by my employer and administered by HealthEquity. I pledge a total of $_____ for the coming Plan Year (or remainder of the Plan Year, if election is due to a Qualifying Event).

◯ 2. NO, I am not interested in participating in the Dependent Care FSA for the coming Plan Year (or remainder of the Plan Year, if election is due to a Qualifying Event).

You can only contribute to the Dependent Care FSA if you incur expenses for the care of your eligible dependents so that both you and your spouse (if you have one) can work. If your spouse does not have income from employment, or does not meet other criteria listed in the Summary Plan Description, then you are not eligible for the Dependent Care FSA. If you are married but your Federal tax filing status is Married Filing Separately, then your maximum annual contribution is $2,500; for other tax filing statuses the maximum is $5,000. However, if your spouse's income from employment totals less than the dollar maximums above, then your maximum contribution is limited to the amount of your spouse's earned income. You cannot participate if you are divorced or a single parent and the child's other parent is the primary custodian.*

Qualifying Events

If you are making a mid-year election change due to a Qualifying Event, indicate the event and its effective date below. Please note that not all Qualifying Events apply to FSAs. Your election change needs to be consistent with the nature of the Qualifying Event. Your election change will be effective prospectively, only after the completed form is received, and will not be retroactive to the date of the Qualifying Event.

All FSA Types:

◯ Change in marital status (marriage, divorce, annulment, death)

◯ Change in number of dependents (birth, adoption, death, dependent gains or loses eligibility)

◯ Employee or spouse gains or loses eligibility for FSA due to change in employment status

◯ Start or stop FMLA or USERRA leave of absence

Health FSA Only:

◯ Court order requires child's enrollment in health FSA or former spouse's health FSA

◯ Employee, spouse or dependent gains or loses eligibility for Medicare or Medicaid

Dependent Care FSA Only:

◯ Significant increase in cost of daycare expenses by a provider who is not the employee's relative

Employee Certification—Please Read and Sign

I request to participate in the Benefit Options as indicated and hereby authorize my employer to make pre-tax deductions from my compensation in the amount(s) indicated above. I understand that my elections are binding upon me for the entire Plan Year and cannot be revoked, modified, or amended except due to very limited Qualifying Events such as changes in family or other status as described above. I further certify that any Dependents for whom I will be claiming reimbursement for Dependent care or health care expenses would qualify as my Dependents under the tax code, as explained in the summary plan description. I understand that future Social Security benefits may be affected should I elect pre-tax salary deductions under this Plan. My signature also confirms the additional terms and conditions outlined on this form.
